

User Story: Run the main application.

Kate runs the application, and the application displays a set of menus: Manage albums, Manage Songs, Manage Artists and Exit with associate numbers to select. Application waits to get the selection from the user. If the user selects a number outside the menu, the application logs an error in a log file and error code should be displayed.